Alaska's Ballot Counting System

Your Vote is Secure!

Alaska uses three different methods to count ballots:

- ❖ Hand-count
- ❖ Optical Scan
- ❖ Touch Screen equipment with voter-verifiable paper audit trail

Alaska's ballot tabulation system has a paper trail of every ballot cast. Each precinct receives paper ballots that are either hand-counted when the polls close or counted using an optical scan unit as the voter inserts the ballot into the optical scan. In addition, during federal elections, each precinct has a touch screen voting unit equipped with a voter-verifiable paper trail that allows the voter to verify the printed version of the ballot prior to casting the ballot.

The ballot tabulation system used in Alaska to produce and count ballots is federally certified and is thoroughly tested prior to each election. It is a stand-alone system that is not connected to the internet or to a network.

Each optical scan and touch screen voting unit, along with their corresponding memory cards are tested prior to the election. A functionality test is conducted to ensure the equipment is in proper working order. Two different logic and accuracy tests are performed, by two different bi-partisan boards, on memory cards to ensure the cards are counting the ballots correctly.

In addition to the pre-election testing, the division is required by law to conduct a verification of machine counts by hand-counting ballots from a random sampling of precincts. In fact, through this verification, 5% of the ballots cast in each of the 40 house districts throughout Alaska are hand-counted after the election to verify the election results are accurate. If we find a discrepancy of more than 1% in the hand-count verification, we are required to hand-count all of the ballots cast in the district.

With all the testing, security and verification processes used by the Division of Elections during each election, you can go to the polls knowing that your vote is secure and that it will be accurately counted and reported.

Voting Information

General Election Day is November 6, 2018

Polling Places

The polls will be open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. To locate your polling place please call 1-888-383-8683. In Anchorage, please call 269-8683.

Bring Identification to the Polls

You MUST be prepared to show one form of identification. You may use the following ID:

- Voter ID Card
- Driver's License
- State ID Card
- Current and valid photo ID Card
- Passport
- Military ID Card
- Birth Certificate
- Hunting or Fishing License

or, you may use an original copy of one of the following documents if it contains your name and current address:

- Current Utility Bill
- Government Check
- Bank Statement
- Pay Check
- Other Government Document

Questioned Ballots

If your name does not appear on the precinct register or if you do not have identification, you may vote a questioned ballot. Your voted ballot will be placed in a secrecy sleeve and then sealed inside a completed questioned ballot envelope. The information you provide on the outside of the questioned ballot envelope will be used to determine your voting eligibility and to update your voter registration. If for any reason your questioned ballot is not fully counted, you will be notified in writing.

Marking the Ballot

When voting, fill in the oval next to the choice you wish to vote for.

Mark only one choice in each section. If you mark more than one choice, that section of the ballot will NOT be counted. You do not have to vote each section.

If you make a mistake marking your ballot, DO NOT erase or correct the ballot. Return your ballot to an election worker and request a new ballot. Sections with eraser marks or where more than one choice is selected will not be counted.

Campaigning Prohibited

Campaigning is not allowed within 200 feet of any entrance to a polling place during the hours the polls are open. This includes any discussions about candidates or issues appearing on the ballot or displaying campaign items such as signs, bumper stickers or buttons.

Voter Assistance and Concerns

Assistance While Voting

If you need language or other assistance during the voting process, you may have a person of your choice help you as long as that person is not a candidate for office in the election, is not your employer, agent of your employer or agent of a union you belong to. You can have help during each step of the voting process, including inside the voting booth with reading or marking the ballot. The election workers at the polling place are available to help you as well. This is your right under federal law.

Alaska Native Language Assistance

Bilingual outreach workers and poll workers have been hired by the Division of Elections to provide language assistance in rural areas where there are limited English proficient Alaska Native voters. Before Election Day, bilingual workers make announcements, provide election information to their community and are available to provide language assistance for any voting related activity, including voter registration, absentee voting and to assist with all information in this pamphlet. On Election Day, bilingual workers will provide language assistance at the polling place with the voting process, including translating the ballot.

If you need the name of the person who has been hired to provide language assistance in your community, please contact the Division of Elections. For Alaska Native language assistance call, toll free 1-866-954-8683.

Touch Screen Voting Machine

On Election Day, each polling place will have a touch screen voting machine. The touch screen voting machine is intended for the blind, disabled, and for voters who do not read well. It allows voters to vote unassisted through the use of magnified, high contrast and audio ballots. In rural areas where there are limited English proficient Alaska Native voters, the touch screen voting machine will also have an audio translation of the ballot in Alaska Native languages. Voting an audio ballot may take 15 – 20 minutes. If you need to vote using the touch screen voting machine, let the election board know.

Visually Impaired Voters

Magnifying ballot viewers are available at all polling places and absentee voting sites. Audio recording of this pamphlet is available at each Regional Election Office, from the Alaska State Library, Talking Book Center, located in Juneau and on the Division of Elections website. Telephone the library at (907) 465-1315 for information.

Hearing Impaired Voters

For questions or to obtain election information, you may contact the Division of Elections through our TTY telecommunications device by calling (907) 465-3020.

Physically Disabled Voters

If you have difficulty gaining access to your polling place, or if you have questions about the accessibility of your polling place, please contact the Division of Elections. We make every effort to ensure that polling places are accessible to all Alaskans.

Concerns, Comments, Questions

If you have any concerns, comments or questions, please contact a Division of Elections Office.

Absentee Voting

If you do not want to go to your polling place to vote on Election Day, the below voting options are available.

Voting at an Absentee Voting Site

Beginning October 22, 2018, you may vote at an absentee voting site. Ballots for all 40 districts are available at all Regional Elections offices. In addition to the Regional Elections offices, there are many other voting sites throughout Alaska that will have ballots for their house district. For more information or for a list of absentee voting locations visit our website or contact a Regional Elections office.

Voting By Mail or Electronically

To vote by mail or electronically, you must submit an application.

Receiving a Ballot By Mail

You must complete an absentee ballot application to receive a ballot in the mail. When completing the application, you can request a ballot for a specific election or for all elections in the year. Your application MUST be received by October 27, 2018 to receive a ballot for the General election. Apply early to ensure timely delivery of your ballot. When returning your voted ballot, it must be postmarked on or before Election Day.

Receiving a Ballot By Electronic Transmission

There are two ways to vote electronically. You may apply for a ballot to be sent to you by FAX or online delivery. For the General election, you may apply between the dates of October 22, 2018 through 5:00pm Alaska time on November 5, 2018. Your voted ballot may be returned by mail or by fax. If you return your voted ballot by fax, it must be received no later than 8:00pm Alaska time on Election Day. If you return your voted ballot by mail, it must be postmarked on or before Election Day.

If you have questions about voting by mail or electronically, please contact the Absentee Office at (907) 270-2700 or Toll Free 1-877-375-6508.

Special Needs Voting

If you are unable to go to the polls due to age, serious illness or a disability, you may have a personal representative pick up and deliver a ballot to you beginning 15 days before an election at an absentee voting site or on Election Day at the polling place. Your personal representative can be anyone, except a candidate for office in the election, the voter's employer, an agent of the voter's employer, or an officer or agent of the voter's union.

For more information about absentee voting, contact any Division of Elections office or visit our website at:

United States Representative

Alyse S. Galvin, Alaska Democratic Party Nominee (Undeclared)

RESIDENCE ADDRESS: 3117 Cottonwood Street
Anchorage, AK 99508

MAILING ADDRESS: PO Box 90020
Anchorage, AK 99509

EMAIL: alyse@alyse4alaska.com

WEBSITE: www.alyse4alaska.com

AGE: 53

SPOUSE'S NAME: Patrick Galvin

CHILDREN'S NAMES: Cooper, Sean, Bridget,
Camden

EDUCATION:
BA, University of California San Diego

OTHER:
Alyse Galvin is a mom, a lifelong Alaskan, a community leader, and has been a fighter for people across Alaska throughout her career. She is a former small business owner and managed a large hotel. Alyse spent the last four years as a leader of Great Alaska Schools. In Congress, Alyse will put partisan politics aside and be an independent voice fighting for all Alaskans. Alyse will work for bipartisan solutions to our toughest problems and fight for Alaska's interests.

Alyse and her husband Pat are the proud parents of four amazing kids raised and educated in Alaska. Like any parent, she wants to make sure that Alaska is a place with the jobs, educational opportunities, and vibrant communities that will allow her children -- and every child -- to live, work and raise families right here in Alaska.

STATEMENT:

Alyse knows firsthand that Alaskans are struggling to find jobs with wages that keep up with rising costs. Alyse will work to revitalize the Alaskan economy and create the jobs of the future, championing legislation helping small businesses thrive, encouraging innovation and technology, establishing statewide high-speed broadband, investing in roads and ports for international trade, and reducing energy costs.

Everyone deserves healthcare. Our healthcare system is failing patients, led us into a recession and stands in the way of economic growth. Alyse will work to ensure every Alaskan has the healthcare they need, fighting to lower prescription costs, promoting stability and lower costs for coverage. Alyse will protect women's access to reproductive health care.

The strength of our economy begins with a strong education. Alyse has extensive experience improving educational opportunities to support children's school success from cradle to career. Alyse will fight for policies that bring our young people the skills to thrive in the future.

Alyse believes Congress must protect Social Security and Medicare, benefits seniors have paid for, earned and been promised after a lifetime of hard work. Alyse will be a champion for seniors and reach across party lines to allow Medicare to negotiate lower prices for prescriptions.

Alaska is facing a violent crime epidemic and substance abuse crisis that's left no family or community untouched. Alyse will address this emergency head-on, adding more law enforcement, treating opioid addiction as a public health crisis, improving access to drug treatment, and ensuring that every Alaskan feels safe.

STATEMENT:
Throughout my service to Alaska, I've worked to protect the unique beauty, abundant resources, and resilient people of our state. Whether it's defending our economy from job killing rules and regulations, empowering families and small businesses with new opportunities, or upholding the constitution, I've always stood up and fought for Alaska.

Our state has experienced many successes and the work to protect Alaska's future is far from over. We are faced with a barrage of one size fits all, "Washington knows best" policies that jeopardize our already sluggish economy, lock away our land and resources, and ignore the needs of our people. The 2016 election sent a clear message to D.C. bureaucrats. Enough is enough. I have worked to roll back burdensome regulations, deliver tax relief and unleash Alaska's leadership potential in energy production and I still have more I want to do.

With the confidence you've entrusted in me, and the relationships I've built in Congress, I'm strategically positioned to defend Alaska's interests. As a senior member of two powerful committees and as Chairman Emeritus of the Natural Resources Committee, I continue to advocate for our great state. With these key roles and a deep passion for our people, I'm confident that Alaska will shape many policy debates needed to build a stronger, more vibrant state for generations to come.

My motivation and enthusiasm for the Alaskan people remains as strong as ever. With your support, I remain committed to defending and fighting for Alaska's future.

OTHER:

In 2003, Mark was elected as Mayor of Anchorage, and oversaw the biggest building boom Anchorage saw in a generation, balanced the city budget, earned top bond ratings, grew the economy, strengthened relations with Alaska Natives and other minority groups, and reduced crime.

In 2008, Mark was elected to the United States Senate where he broke down bureaucratic barriers and built an impressive record of accomplishments on issues such as fisheries, travel & tourism, transportation, resource development, tribal and Alaska Native interests, the Arctic, education, veterans, commerce, housing and more.

STATEMENT:

When more than half of Alaskans believe we are headed in the wrong direction, it is time for change.

That is why, as Governor, I would:

1. Constitutionally Protect a Sustainable PFD: Using a Percentage of Market Value (POMV) formula, I would constitutionally protect the PFD estimated currently between $1600-$1800 a year – to grow from there. I would dedicate remaining funds for pre-K-12 education freeing up general funds previously used for education – this year that amount estimated at $1.6 billion.
2. Create Long-Term Fiscal Stability: In addition, my PFD plan to protect the PFD and secure long-term education funding, I believe we must (a) reform delivery of government services (b) move away from paying cash for capital budgets and instead using general obligation bonds (c) only after implementing the above, we may have to review, revamp, or add new revenues if we still have a deficit.
3. Keep Alaska Families Safe by Reducing Crime in Urban and Rural Alaska: There are multiple things we can do to get smarter and tougher on crime, but to begin we must address drug epidemic and substance abuse issues, increase coordination between state and local government efforts, and reform the village public safety officers and village police programs.
4. Harness Alaska's True Potential Through Economic Development & Job Creation: We must diversify our economic portfolio, create a stable regulatory environment, train our workforce so we can fill Alaska jobs with Alaskans first, and identify new opportunities and industries for growth.

STATEMENT:

I am running for governor because Alaska needs bold
new leadership, now more than ever.

Reduce spending: Alaska has the nation's highest per capita government spending—double or triple the amount in many other states. This is unsustainable. As Governor, I will introduce significantly lower budgets, and use my veto pen to reduce the footprint of government.

Declare war on criminals: The explosive growth in violent and property crime demands an aggressive response. SB 91 has made crime worse, and I support a full repeal of this troubled policy. We must end the “catch and release” of criminals, and instead deliver swift and severe consequences for criminal behavior.

Protect the PFD: Alaskans' PFDs should be paid in full using the formula that has worked for decades, and the PFD should be protected in the constitution. No candidate for governor has filed more bills and amendments to protect the PFD. For example, I sponsored SB 1 to restore the PFD cuts made by Governor Walker in 2016.

Restore public trust: Too many politicians have squandered the trust of the people with broken promises on the PFD, taxes, the budget, and other issues. I am committed to earning that trust back, the only way I know how: by keeping promises and commitments. By saying what I mean and meaning what I say.

With the right leadership, Alaska can once again be a land of opportunity for anyone willing to work hard. I'd be honored to have your vote.

Pledge To Protect & Restore The Permanent Fund, Oppose Taxes, And To Restore & Protect The Whole Of The State's Financial Assets & Incomes:

1. Protecting the P. F. D. using it's historic calculation, along with back-pay to the Alaskan People of all P. F. D. monies taken from them.
2. Monies historically destined for The General Fund (budget) that have been diverted into Off-Budget cash pools are to be redirected back into The General Fund to become available again to pay the day to day operating expenses of The State.
3. A forensic audit of all Off-Budget Trust & Agency Funds, along with a list of every stock, bond, and other investment that each Off-Budget Entity owns.
4. All year end Off-Budget Account Surplus Balances are presently listed as "Assets." This is wrong. Re-Categorize those profits as what they really are; "Excess Revenue."
5. Change the law, so no account can convert yearly profits into Off-Budget "Assets" ever again.
6. Oppose all new taxes, and consider the layer by layer repeal of existing taxes as the Off-Budget Assets & Incomes are Recovered & Redirected back to The General Fund.
7. After the State's day to day operational needs are met; consider a distribution of these excess profits to the People Of Alaska every year, in addition to the P. F. D.

STATEMENT:
I am running for re-election because now more than ever
Alaska needs independent leaders who prioritize long-term decisions over special interests and the politically correct.

Long-Term Fiscal Solutions: Byron and I entered office during the worst deficit in Alaska’s history. We built a way out of that fiscal freefall. Our administration cut the deficit by 3 billion dollars and reduced the budget to 2007 levels. We restored Alaska’s credit rating and replaced shortsighted spending with a long-term plan, stabilizing our economy and protecting future Dividends.
Compromise, independent thinking, and some tough decisions put the state back on track.

Healthcare: In 2014, the state was entering an opioid epidemic and had no adequate system to address the unique obstacles of healthcare in Alaska. Today, Alaska is a model for states’ response to the opioid crisis, and Medicaid expansion has insured thousands of Alaskans while reducing costs to the state. Byron and I stood with Senator Murkowski and rejected the disastrous healthcare proposals out of Washington. There is still work to do, but this administration has a proven record of increasing access to care.

Independent Leadership: Alaskans and Americans are all too familiar with the crisis of partisan gridlock. Yet many have resigned themselves to political paralysis. Byron and I cannot accept that. As the only Independent governing team in America, we worked with both White House Administrations to realize Alaska’s resource wealth. We negotiated with both parties to achieve fiscal compromise.
We put Alaskans’ interests over the interests of any party.

STATEMENT:

A Voice for All Alaskans

Public Safety First: Our villages, neighborhoods and schools must be safe places to live and work. When crime due to addiction and the opioid crisis creates daily fear, it's time to recognize that the status quo isn't working.

Solve the Fiscal Crisis, Protect the PFD: Slashing the budget, raiding our savings, and cutting the PFD is not a solution. All Alaskans need to come together to support a balanced and fair fiscal plan to guarantee the PFD for our children.

Investment in Education: Our children are the most precious resource we have, with unlimited potential. But they will never reach that potential without excellence in K-12, vocational training, and affordable college.

Quality Careers: Alaskans deserve quality careers with good benefits so they can raise their families with peace of mind. Given Alaska's tremendous natural wealth, every Alaskan should be able to work in a healthy, stable, and prosperous environment.

Protecting Our Rights: As a woman who has worked hard throughout my life, I am a strong advocate for women's rights, equal pay for equal work, and the rights of all peoples regardless of their age, sex, race, religion, or gender.

Leadership and Vision: Alaska is at a crossroads: do we settle for the short term band-aid approaches that got us into the mess we're now in, or do we embrace a bold vision to create a diversified, sustainable future for Alaskans? I have the education, experience, and passion to work for you and Alaska's future.

STATEMENT:

As Lieutenant Governor, Care plans on being a full partner on the Libertarian Governor team. All bills that are intolerant of rights, increase taxes, or force compliance to unjust laws, should be vetoed. As a Libertarian, she is fiscally responsible and socially tolerant in both her private and public life.

Care would encourage legislation that would end the two-primary system and encourage third-party and independent candidates. Legislation should end the “3% rule” that keeps minority parties from qualifying for ballot access, and make illegal the two-caucus favoritism exhibited in our legislature. All worthwhile and constitutional initiatives would be approved.

In 2014, Care ran for Governor against JR Myers, Sean Parnell, and Bill Walker. Alaskans need to elect the Libertarian team to do the Governor’s job! Vote for the team that will balance the State’s finances by making the decisions that were promised in 2014. Our team will never grow government on the backs of the Alaskan people. Vote for a State of Alaska that puts individual prosperity ahead of keeping the government growing.

Take the Government OUT of:

- Marriage, Family, and Religious Decisions
- Medical decisions
- Business, private schools, and free trade
- Victimless offenses (i.e., marijuana, e-cigarettes)
- Gun ownership
- Political favoritism (End the two-caucus legislature and state-funded primaries)
- YOUR POCKET (no new taxes, reduce existing taxes, reinstate the full PFD)

STATEMENT:
I am a lifelong Alaskan, passionate about this place and its people. I know polarizing partisanship is not a path to solutions. Progress takes leadership, collaboration and hard work. I have devoted my life to bringing people together to tackle complicated issues.

The Economy
Coming into office, our administration faced a fiscal disaster. In four years we cut the deficit by 3 billion dollars, re-established Alaska’s credit rating, and replaced shortsighted spending habits with a long-term plan that ensures Alaskans’ Permanent Fund Dividends and fiscal stability.

Education
Education grows everything else. Our administration repeatedly held the line against cuts to school budgets. We have worked towards universal, voluntary pre-K services, increasing vocational training programs, and reducing student loan interest rates. Education is the best investment we can make.

Native Sovereignty
Bill and I have fought to ensure Native sovereignty and subsistence rights at every turn. We rallied against devastating cuts to rural education; increased funding for prosecutors, investigators and 911 services in rural Alaska; and worked with Native leaders to lower rates of suicide, alcoholism and opioid abuse. No one else in this race will stand for Native Alaskans like this Administration.

Further Priorities
Making state government open, transparent and accessible to the people. Working with all Alaskans to address, adapt and mitigate climate change and its impact on our way of life. Protecting our transboundary rivers. Providing a modern and secure election system. Growing our economy and state transportation system by strengthening our Alaska Marine Highway.

STATEMENT:
From my humble roots growing up on a rural farm, I have worked hard to gain the trust of Alaskans. Working since high school, I have strived to show the tenacity and dedication necessary to gain the private sector experience critical to bringing the strongest Republican team possible to Juneau in November.

As an 18-year state legislator, I have worked hard on the important issues facing our state: increased focus on public safety, early and forward funding of education, promoted and supported resource development opportunities, and held firm against a statewide income tax.

None of my accomplishments as a legislator would have been possible without the people that I represent. It has been an honor and a privilege serving you. I look forward to working together to ensure that Alaska is a great place to live, work, and raise a family.

I would appreciate your vote on Election Day and thank you for your support!

STATEMENT:

I am born and raised in the district. After college, I came home to work and to raise my children. I am proud to be a product of "grow your own." My family goes back many generations, this is my ancestral homeland. I remain committed to improving the lives of our citizens and our communities. It is my intent and my responsibility to ensure our region participates as our state moves forward.

Education: Education is a fundamental need to succeed in life. The better educated our children are, the brighter the future for us all. Rural educators face many challenges that can be overcome. I fully support education, rural school construction and school major maintenance and will continue to be a strong advocate.

Energy: Every Alaskan deserves affordable energy. Modern energy services are integral to poverty reduction, food security, public health, and quality education for all. As a resource rich state, our state should and could, harness all this energy to benefit all its citizens. I pledge to continue to work towards reducing the high cost of energy in rural Alaska.

Fiscal Plan: We have drastically drawn down our reserves over the past four years. Relying only on budget reductions is not an answer. The passage of Senate Bill 26 allows for sustainable use of the Permanent Fund earnings to be used for state operations and an individual distribution to qualified Alaskans. I will continue to work on a solution that improves our economy.

STATEMENT:

I have been deeply honored to serve as the first Alaska Native Speaker of the House. A big thank you to everyone who helped make that possible.

Given Alaska’s current fiscal challenges, it’s more important than ever that the district have an experienced voice in Juneau. That is why I am running for reelection.

My focus will continue to be on creating a stable fiscal future for Alaska. The alternative is wholesale budget cuts, which would be highly detrimental to rural Alaska.

I’ll continue to fight for our district’s health & safety and education needs, and push for troopers, VPSOs and consistent ferry service for Southwest Alaska. I’ll also work to make sure the Department of Fish & Game has the resources to manage our world-class fisheries.

This past session the legislature used earnings from the permanent fund to help pay for essential services. I supported legislation to limit what can be spent from the fund, and will continue to champion growing it, in order to protect the PFD well into the future.

I am blessed to have great legislative staff who put in long hours with me on behalf of the district. Sadly, my long-time friend and legislative aide, Adam Berg, passed away this July after a lengthy illness. He will be greatly missed.

With your support on November 6, I will continue to work hard to improve the quality of life for our towns and villages in House District 37.

Quyana niicugnilua, neryuniurtua elpeci pitekluci calillerkamnek.
Alaska is in trouble.
We are considered the most dangerous state in the Union because of violent crime, and have almost the highest rate of suicide in the nation.
We rank as one of the worst states for our education system, even though we spend more per student than almost any other state.
We have the worst fiscal stability, worst infrastructure and one of the worst economies.
Alaska rates very high in health care quality, but very low in access to that care.
While there are no easy solutions, one thing is clear; things must change.
Some important examples:
 How we increase our revenue and spend our money.
 How we educate our children and heal our families.
 How we treat our addicts, and rehabilitate our criminals.
It's not all bad news.
Alaska ranks very high in opportunity and community engagement.
We have a pristine environment, clean air and water, an abundance of natural beauty, a rich history, and a very bright future.
What we have is well worth protecting, preserving, and improving.
I am not a career politician, and I don't intend to be one. I do, however, wish to be a public servant, to represent the Will of the People.

STATEMENT:
Waqaa,

My name is Darren Morgan Deacon -- son of Fred and Betty Turner and Rodney Deacon, grandson of Henry and Dolly Deacon, Harry and Lucy Turner, and of George Morgan, Sr. and Mary Takumjenak and Theresa Nook Morgan.

I am running for State House District 38 to better our region. As a lifelong YK delta resident I feel that we need representatives in the House who will fight to restore a full PFD -- it provides a much needed boost to our local economy -- and to defend our subsistence rights and traditions.

I want to support Search and Rescue efforts in the region, and the volunteers who go out to bring us and our loved ones home.

As a Tribal chief, I have learned a lot about Tribal sovereignty and support measures on both the state and federal level that will give Tribes the power that they deserve. As a Native corporation board member, I have learned the importance of Alaska Native Corporations and the positive work they do for our region, people, and culture.

I am blessed to work as a Tribal Workforce Development Specialist, and have gained valuable knowledge that I can use to help build our local workforce and employment opportunities to help bring good paying jobs to the region.

I humbly ask for your vote this November 6th, and hope to serve you in District 38 as your next State Representative.

Born and raised in Bethel, Tiffany is both Yup'ik and Polish. She is the daughter of Joe Hinz of Kipnuk and Patricia Zulkosky of Baudette, MN, and Bethel. Tiffany has experience in local, state, and federal policy and works full-time in external affairs at YKHC.

STATEMENT:

Intending to pursue a career in journalism after university, opportunities would lead Tiffany to public service early in her career.

In 2007, Tiffany won an election to Bethel City Council. She served a year in her term, before being appointed by her colleagues to serve as Bethel's Mayor at the age of 24. Tiffany worked on federal policy issues with tribes and community leaders following an appointment to serve as Rural Director for U.S. Senator Mark Begich in early 2009. Tiffany resumed her career in public service in 2018, when she was appointed by Gov. Walker as the Representative for House District 38 in the State Legislature.

Growing up and working in the YK Delta developed and deepened Tiffany's respect, understanding, and commitment to the ways of life in her home region. She has enjoyed the privilege of elected office and working with policymakers and regional non-profits on complex policy issues that impact lives in rural Alaska. These opportunities taught her the importance of advancing community needs and cultural values prioritized in District 38.

Alaska is faced with historic fiscal and policy challenges changing the landscape of state government. Budget and policy solutions will require courageous leadership, willing to consider innovative approaches. In rural Alaska, the impacts to state-funded programs - like education, public safety, and healthcare - are wide-reaching and have long-lasting implications. Tiffany is committed to protecting critical services and programs, and the overall well-being of communities in rural southwest Alaska.

STATEMENT:

My vision for Rural Alaska is of communities that are vibrant, healthy, and safe places to raise families.

Realizing this vision requires that we overcome some challenges. A lack of jobs means difficulty in achieving economic prosperity. The high cost of energy, food, and goods contribute to poverty. A lack of water & sewer leads to sickness. And drug & alcohol abuse affect whole communities.

But if there is one thing that Rural Alaskans have proven it's that they are tough and resourceful. Many folks fight for what little they have, and I intend to do the same at the state level.

I will continue to defend power-cost-equalization (PCE). In the 1980's urban areas of the state received funds to build energy projects, and the PCE program was created as part of a deal to bring energy equity to Rural Alaska. Nearly every rural household receives annual payments ranging from $600 - $2,000 annually.
But recently some lawmakers have indicated a willingness to raid the PCE fund. Protecting these fund will continue to be one of my highest priorities.

As the Co-Chair of the House Finance Committee for the past 2-years I have secured much needed funds for water & sewer, drug & alcohol treatment, and community assistance. I have fought to keep jobs from being eliminated. I have supported programs that help our elders stay in their homes. And I will continue to defend against those who would balance the budget on the backs of Rural Alaskans.

SPECIAL INTERESTS:
Aviation, reading, fishing, hiking, spending time with family

OTHER:
I've lived in Kotzebue my entire life, and it is where Molly and I are raising our daughter Emily. My parents are Cindy and the late Richard Lincoln. My Dad's parents were Doris and Rodney Lincoln, and my mom's parents were Lucille and Carroll Brock. Nothing matters more than family, and my work is dedicated to making our district and state a better place for our children's future.

STATEMENT:
I believe our home and way of life are blessings that deserve strong and competent representation in Juneau. We are fortunate to live in a healthy environment and subsist off of the land and ocean, while at the same time pursuing opportunities like the trades, aviation, medicine, education, engineering, public service, and business leadership.

I will continue to work for a future where young families support themselves and loved ones, build homes in our communities, and raise their children to love their culture and who they are.

The focus of my campaign is the same focus I have had since I was appointed:

- Protecting our land and right to subsistence hunting, fishing, and whaling
- Investing in our traditional culture and language
- Supporting our students, teachers, and education system
- Improving village safety
- Ensuring that our district benefits from resource and infrastructure development

Our ancestors gave us the tools we need to succeed in life:

- Hard work
- Humility
- Cooperation
- Responsibility to tribe
- Spirituality
- Humor
- Respect for others and elders

These values guide me in my work in Juneau and throughout my life. I look forward to continuing to work for you, and I thank you for your support in November.

Taikuu.

STATEMENT:

Our present decisions are vital to our future. We have lived in the Arctic since time immemorial and to continue our presence we must foster a bright future.
Our youth, subsistence rights, and self-determination are the means to our resiliency. The education system should reflect the western tools & skills needed outside our district, and to integrate our traditional edification.
Our traditional intellect and respect for nature has allowed us to flourish in a rash environment. Our sovereignty depends on our Iñupiat ideologies, and the decisions made in the State Legislature need to include our values to secure a healthy future. To ensure that our principles are represented in the laws voted on by the Legislature, we need an authoritative voice. A voice that will truly represent the self-determination of our District.

Uvunga Attiga Uqimgan. My name is Patrick Savok. I am the grandson of the late James and Annie Savok (Thomas), son of Bernhardt Savok and the late MaryAnn Clark. I am married to Shaylyn Savok, granddaughter of the late Mae Jacobson (Tuzroyluk) and daughter of Martin and Lucy Shroyer (Nelson). Like most everyone in District 40, I was raised in our rural communities. Having that understanding will be my guiding factor while in Juneau, protect our way of life from those who do not understand it. I appreciate your vote and support to be our next State Representative. Quyaanaq!

STATEMENT:

Here are some important reasons I have decided to throw my name in the hat to be your next State Representative. I firmly believe the Permanent Fund belongs to the people before government. Our current representative voted to protect it, then voted to start spending it. SB26 passed the Senate, but major changes were added in the House by the House majority. By the time it came to vote the House added an income tax and a new oil and gas production tax hike. Without the consent of the people.

We need responsible sustainable development. We should be doing everything we can to responsibly develop our resources and build infrastructure in the Arctic. More development means more jobs and better wages for workers in the Arctic.

Educating our people is a must. Looking at how we spend on our education system is very important to the people of District 40, as our schools and educators are a huge priority. Focusing on the budget will be one of my main priorities. The FY19 operating budget that was passed was about 4.4 billion UGF and the FY19 capital budget was 204 million UGF. Of this, $595 million from the Constitutional Budget Reserve (CBR) fund with a potential for $100 million more if the next legislature authorizes it. This will reflect as $1.8 billion remaining of the $2.4 billion CBR. Oil prices have risen a bit and future revenue forecasts look promising, however future legislatures will be facing many of the same challenges.

Ballot Measure No. 1 - 17FSH2
An act providing for the protection of wild salmon and fish and wildlife habitat

Ballot Measure No. 1

This act would amend Alaska's fish habitat permitting law. The act would require the Department of Fish and Game (ADF&G) to apply new standards to permitting activities and development projects that have the potential to harm fish habitat. The act would exempt existing projects, operations, or facilities that have received all state and federal permits until a new permit is needed. The act would create fish and wildlife habitat-protection standards. The standards would address water quality, temperature, streamflow, and more. The act defines "anadromous fish habitat." The act would allow ADF&G to apply the law to all habitat in Alaska that directly or indirectly supports salmon or other anadromous fish. The act would provide for three types of permits for development in anadromous fish habitat. ADF&G could issue a general permit—a single permit that applies to many people—for certain activities. For other activities that require a permit, the act would establish a two-track permitting system. Minor permits would be issued for activities that have little impact on fish habitat. Major permits would be issued for projects that have the potential to cause significant adverse effects on fish habitat. The act defines "significant adverse effects." The act would require ADF&G to avoid or minimize adverse effects through mitigation measures and permit conditions. It would provide public notice on all permits and a chance to comment on major permits. The act would create criteria, timeframes, and an appeals process for the permits by interested persons. The act would allow ADF&G to respond to specified conduct with tickets, civil fines, or criminal penalties. The act would repeal two current statutes. One is regarding mitigation from a dam. The other is regarding criminal penalties that are addressed elsewhere.

Should this initiative become law?

Legislative Affairs Agency Summary

The Act defines the term “anadromous fish habitat” and sets new standards to protect it. The standards relate to factors such as water quality and flow. The Act requires the Department of Fish and Game to specify which water bodies and areas of the state are this habitat. If the status of some water bodies is not known, the Act provides that the water bodies will be treated as this habitat. The Department of Fish and Game may check a water body and exclude it from that status. The Act requires permits for activities that may affect this habitat. The Act creates three types of permit. A general permit would allow some low impact activities for all persons in an area.

Ballot Measure No. 1

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

Other activities would need a minor or a major permit. An activity that will not have significant adverse effects would require a minor permit. An activity that could significantly affect the habitat would require a major permit. If possible, an activity must avoid or cause the least harm to the habitat. The Act provides that the adverse effects of some activities may be mitigated. Any activity that now has a permit would not have to comply with the Act until its permit expires. The Act sets permit criteria. The Act creates a process for public notice and comment on permit requests. The Act provides for permit appeals and review. The Act provides for injunctions and civil and criminal penalties.

Statement of Costs

Estimate of Costs to the State of Alaska for Implementation of the Voter Initiative: Providing Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat (17FSH2)

Multi Agency Cost Summary

Agency	Cost
Department of Fish and Game – Habitat Component	$1,319,000
Department of Environmental Conservation – Water Quality Component	$268,300
Department of Law – Civil Division, Natural Resources Component	$450,000
Office of the Lieutenant Governor	$9,000
Office of the Lieutenant Governor – Division of Elections	$49,685
TOTAL	$2,095,985

Estimate of Costs to the Departments of Fish and Game, Environmental Conservation, and Law to Implement the Ballot Initiative

Estimate of Costs to the Department of Fish and Game – Statewide Support Services, Habitat Component

As required by AS 15.45.090(a)(4), the Alaska Department of Fish and Game has prepared the following statement of costs to implement the proposed ballot initiative. If approved, the initiative would take effect 90 days following election certification.

Estimate by Category

Personal Services	$1,087,000
Other Costs	$232,000
TOTAL	$1,319,000

The initiative would require the development of regulations to identify how various changes to Title 16.05.867, 16.05.871, 16.05.875, 16.05.877, 16.05.883, 16.05.884, 16.05.885, 16.05.887, 16.05.889, 16.05.894, and 16.05.901 would be implemented.

The standards under which the Department of Fish and Game would operate when issuing a permit to ensure proper protection of anadromous fish habitat include maintaining water quality and water temperature; instream flows; efficient upstream and downstream passage of fish; habitat dependent connections between anadromous fish habitat including surface groundwater connections; stream, river, and lake bank and bed stability; aquatic habitat diversity, productivity, stability, and function; riparian areas that support fish and wildlife habitat; and any additional criteria adopted by regulation.

Ballot Measure No. 1

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

The initiative would require the following new actions by the division: presume that all naturally occurring connected water bodies and adjacent riparian areas are anadromous and therefore jurisdictional, site specific written determinations to determine if a waterbody is not important anadromous fish habitat; specify in regulation all de minimus activities that do not require a permit and require anadromous fish habitat permits for all activities not specified, public notice of proposed general permits with the possibility of a least one public hearing if requested by an interested person; requirement to renew general permits every five years; requirement to provide written authorization for an individual to operate under a general permit; public notice for permit amendments; public notice to rescind a permit; conduct an assessment and determination on whether a fish habitat permit is minor or major; collect fees equal to the cost of service for major fish habitat permit assessments¹; public notice draft major anadromous fish habitat permit assessment and make copy of application available to the public; determine the amount of the performance bond if the permittee is not in compliance; determine if the proposed activity is likely to cause substantial damage to anadromous fish habitat; determine if anadromous fish habitat will recover or be restored within a reasonable period of time, respond to and address public input on major fish habitat permits, and respond to and address reconsideration requests on proposed major anadromous fish habitat permits; and in some cases repair habitat damage and bill respondents as the result of violations using state agency employees.

The initiative also identifies those cases where the Commissioner may not issue a permit for a proposed activity. Compliance with these new actions would require the hiring of habitat biologists, an analyst programmer, and program technicians to implement public notices, postings, responses to public input, public hearings, draft anadromous fish habitats, etc. A public education component should be considered to inform the public of the Department's new and expanded jurisdictional authorities as well as newly expanded potential penalties (daily separate Class A misdemeanors) for non-compliance. The division anticipates the regulation development could take at least two years and implementation of the new regulations and criteria would take additional years to develop and implement.

The Commissioner will need assistance in the form of subject matter expertise (managers, biologists, analyst programmer) from staff and legal assistance in order to develop regulations, public notice the regulations, respond to public comments on proposed regulations, and finalize a regulation package. Implementation of the new regulation package would affect all managers, habitat biologists, and fish and game program technicians in all offices along with analyst programmer support to implement and comply with the new regulations as written.

¹ Allows Habitat Division to collect fees for major fish habitat permit applications, but those monies would go into the general fund.

Estimate of Costs to the Department of Environmental Conservation – Division of Water, Water Quality Component

As required by AS 15.45.090(a)(4), the Alaska Department of Environmental Conservation has prepared the following statement of costs to implement the proposed ballot initiative. If approved, the initiative would take effect 90 days following election certification.

Estimate by Category

Personal Services	$211,600
Other Costs	$56,700
TOTAL	$268,300

The initiative requires several changes to the permitting program in the Department of Fish and Game, Habitat Division. These changes will impact the Department of Environmental Conservation’s permitting and engineering plan review of wastewater discharges to all fresh waters in Alaska.

The initiative creates a rebuttable presumption that all waters in Alaska are anadromous. Alaska’s Water Quality Standards at 18 AAC 70.255(h)(1) states that mixing zones will not be allowed in an area of anadromous fish spawning. The presumption per the initiative can be rebutted by the Department of Fish and Game, but unless and until this occurs, all discharges will be presumed to be ineligible for mixing zones and thus needing to meet water quality criteria at the “end-of-pipe,” the point at which the discharge enters the receiving water.

Division of Water permit application reviews are expected to increase in complexity as industry and municipalities work within the changed model of all fresh waters being presumed anadromous. This presumption increases complexity for applicants as it is predicted that numerous facilities will be required to meet the end-of-pipe limits.

Existing fees cover approximately 60 percent of the cost of permitting and plan review activities. It will take a year to enact new regulations before the Department can begin collecting fees to cover this activity. FY2018 will be funded entirely by general funds while new staff are brought on and trained and new regulations are developed. Revenues reflect a proportional shift to general fund program receipts starting in FY2019 as new regulations are implemented and additional fees are collected.

Personal Services: An Environmental Program Specialist III will be responsible for permit application reviews and will be required to address the additional workload without causing a backlog in the permitting. An Engineer I at DEC will be needed for review and approval of engineering plans for treatment system changes needed to meet the more stringent limits. Both positions will be located in Anchorage.

Other Costs: The new Environmental Program Specialist will require permit writer training, which is only available out-of-state at this time. Limited in-state travel will be required to conduct compliance inspections annually. DEC will require assistance from the Department of Law for consultation during the development of new regulations. The new employees will require equipment for the first year, and normal office supply needs in subsequent years.

Estimate of Costs to the Department of Law – Civil Division, Natural Resources Component

As required by AS 15.45.090(a)(4), the Alaska Department of Law has prepared the following statement of costs to implement the proposed ballot initiative. If approved, the initiative would take effect 90 days following election certification.

Estimate by Category

Personal Services	$376,400
Other Costs	$73,600
TOTAL	$450,000

The initiative would amend AS 16.05 (Fish and Game) by creating a new permitting system for activities that have the potential to affect anadromous fish habitat. The initiative would establish fish and wildlife protection standards that would guide permit issuance. Under the initiative, the Commissioner of the Alaska Department of Fish & Game (ADF&G) would be required to specify anadromous fish habitat in regulation. The initiative would presume that, absent a regulation to the contrary or a site-specific determination and written finding by ADF&G, a naturally occurring surface water body, including all upstream tributaries, is anadromous fish habitat if it is connected to anadromous waters specified as such in regulation or connected to marine waters.

The initiative would require a person to obtain an anadromous fish habitat permit to conduct certain activities in anadromous fish habitat. The initiative would establish classification standards for minor and major anadromous fish habitat permits and provide for public notice periods. For major anadromous fish habitat permits, the initiative would also require ADF&G to prepare a draft and final assessment. The initiative would also create a general permit for minor activities and establish mandatory criteria that must be met for issuance. In addition, the initiative would specify criteria that, if met, would preclude the issuance of a permit.

The initiative would provide for a process by which an applicant could request reconsideration of a determination of the commissioner. The Commissioner’s determination upon reconsideration would be the final administrative decision for purposes of appeal to the superior court.

The initiative would also create civil penalties for certain violations. Notice and an adjudicatory hearing would first be afforded to an alleged offender. The initiative also provides that if a respondent violates an order issued under AS 16.05.894, the Attorney General, upon request of the Commissioner, may seek an injunction requiring the respondent to suspend an activity.

The Department of Law provides legal counsel to ADF&G. The initiative would potentially significantly increase the current amount of ADF&G permitting and appeals because it would broaden the expanse of water bodies in the state deemed to be anadromous fish habitat, expand the scope of activities that would require permits, create a detailed permit consideration process, and provide for reconsideration and appeal of a determination of the Commissioner under AS 16.05.871(e), AS 16.05.875(c) or (d), AS 16.05.883, AS 16.05.884(d) or (f), or AS 16.05.885(d).

Ballot Measure No. 1

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

The Department of Law anticipates that two additional full-time civil attorneys would be needed to perform the legal work this initiative would create -- one attorney primarily focused on permitting and appeals and one attorney primarily focused on enforcement, while providing support to permitting and appeals as needed. ADF&G would be responsible for developing regulations to implement the initiative's provisions, and the Department of Law would likely need to provide assistance with the regulations.

Estimate of Costs to the Office of the Lieutenant Governor and the Division of Elections for the Ballot Initiative

As required by AS 15.45.090(a)(3), the Alaska Office of the Lieutenant Governor has prepared the following statement of minimum costs associated with the proposed ballot initiative. If approved, the initiative would take effect 90 days following election certification.

Office of the Lieutenant Governor

Assuming the initiative is placed on the ballot, the minimum cost to conduct public hearings concerning the initiative in two communities in each of four judicial districts is estimated to be $9,000.

Estimate by Category

Travel	$ 9,000
TOTAL	$ 9,000

Travel: Estimated travel expenses include round-trip air transportation, per diem and other associated travel costs for the Lieutenant Governor and staff to travel to seven communities in Alaska. It is assumed one of the hearings would be in Anchorage which would not involve travel costs.

Division of Elections

As required by AS 15.45.090(a)(3), the Division of Elections has prepared the following statement of costs to implement the proposed ballot initiative.

The minimum cost to the Division of Elections associated with certification of the initiative application and review of the initiative petition, excluding legal costs to the state and the costs to the state of any challenge to the validity of the petition, is estimated to be $49,685.

Estimate by Category

Personal Services	$48,385
Printing Services	$1,300
TOTAL	$49,685

Personal Services: Six temporary employees to review signatures for 2,520 hours.
Estimated cost: $30,618

Certification of the initiative application and review of the initiative petition estimated for 546 hours
Estimated cost: $17,767

Printing Services: Printing service expenses associated with certification of the initiative application and review of initiative petition. Printing of voter booklets: $1,300

Ballot Measure No. 1

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

Full Text of Proposed Law

“An Act providing for protection of wild salmon and fish and wildlife habitat”

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

*Section 1. The uncoded law of the State of Alaska is amended by adding a section to read:

Alaska Fish Habitat Policy.

Because wild salmon are critically important to Alaska’s communities, economies and cultures, it is the policy of the State of Alaska to:

- (a) ensure sustainable fisheries for current and future generations by maintaining wild salmon stocks, other anadromous fish species, and important fish and wildlife habitat;
- (b) protect water resources and habitat that support Alaska’s wild salmon and other anadromous fish species;
- (c) ensure that development activities comply with enforceable standards that protect wild salmon, other anadromous fish species, and important fish and wildlife habitat; and
- (d) ensure that the Department of Fish and Game protects the natural fishery resources of Alaska consistent with Article VIII of the Alaska Constitution.

*Section 2. AS 16.05 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 16.05.867. Fish and wildlife habitat protection standards.

- (a) The commissioner shall ensure the proper protection of fish and wildlife, including protecting anadromous fish habitat from significant adverse effects.
- (b) When issuing a permit under AS 16.05.867-16.05.901, the commissioner shall ensure the proper protection of anadromous fish habitat by maintaining:
 - (1) water quality and water temperature necessary to support anadromous fish habitat;
 - (2) instream flows, the duration of flows, and natural and seasonal flow regimes;
 - (3) safe, timely and efficient upstream and downstream passage of anadromous and native resident fish species to spawning, rearing, migration, and overwintering habitat;
 - (4) habitat-dependent connections between anadromous fish habitat including surface- groundwater connections;
 - (5) stream, river and lake bank and bed stability;
 - (6) aquatic habitat diversity, productivity, stability and function;
 - (7) riparian areas that support adjacent fish and wildlife habitat; and
 - (8) any additional criteria, consistent with the requirements of AS 16.05.867-AS 16.05.901, adopted by the commissioner by regulation.
- (c) The commissioner is authorized, in accordance with AS 44.62, to adopt regulations consistent with AS 16.05.867-16.05.901. All regulations, administrative actions and other duties carried out under this chapter shall be consistent with and in furtherance of the standards set out in this section.

Ballot Measure No. 1

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

*Section 3. AS 16.05.871 is repealed and reenacted to read:

Sec. 16.05.871. Fish habitat permit required for certain activities in anadromous fish habitat.

- (a) Except as provided under AS 16.05.891, a person must obtain an anadromous fish habitat permit under AS 16.05.867 - 16.05.901 before initiating any activity that may use, divert, obstruct, pollute, disturb or otherwise alter anadromous fish habitat. The commissioner may specify in regulation activities that do not require an anadromous fish habitat permit if the activity has only a de minimis effect on anadromous fish habitat.
- (b) The commissioner shall specify in regulation anadromous fish habitat.
- (c) In the absence of a specification under (b) or a site-specific determination by the department under (e) of this section, the commissioner shall presume that a naturally occurring permanent or seasonal surface water body, including all upstream tributaries and segments, is anadromous fish habitat if it is connected to anadromous waters specified under (b) of this section or connected to marine waters.
- (d) The presumption established under (c) of this section applies exclusively to AS 16.05.867- 16.05.901.
- (e) The department may conduct a site-specific review at the request of an applicant to determine whether to exclude a water body from the presumption established under (c) of this section. A determination that a water body is not anadromous fish habitat must be supported by the commissioner's written finding and verifiable documentation that it is not anadromous fish habitat. Any site-specific determination must be made available on the department's internet website with public notice provided through the Alaska Online Public Notice System (AS 44.62.175). The commissioner shall adopt regulations specifying how the department shall conduct site-specific reviews.
- (f) In this chapter, "anadromous fish habitat" means a naturally occurring permanent or intermittent seasonal water body, and the bed beneath, including all sloughs, backwaters, portions of the floodplain covered by the mean annual flood, and adjacent riparian areas, that contribute, directly or indirectly, to the spawning, rearing, migration, or overwintering of anadromous fish.

*Section 4. AS 16.05 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 16.05.875. Anadromous fish habitat permit application.

- (a) An applicant for an anadromous fish habitat permit shall complete an application on a form approved by the department for a permit under AS 16.05.867-16.05.901 and submit the application to the department. The commissioner shall require or collect all information, plans and specifications necessary to assess the proposed activity's potential adverse effects on anadromous fish habitat, and may collect or request additional information to evaluate an application. An applicant shall provide all information required or requested by the commissioner to assess a proposed activity's effects on anadromous fish habitat, including
 - (1) the scope, timing and duration of the proposed activity; and
 - (2) mitigation measures planned for areas of affected anadromous fish habitat.
- (b) Upon receiving a complete fish habitat permit application and any other information

Ballot Measure No. 1

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

requested or collected by the commissioner, the commissioner shall determine whether the proposed activity has the potential to cause significant adverse effects on anadromous fish habitat under AS 16.05.877(a). Before making the determination, the commissioner may work with the applicant in planning the activity to avoid or minimize the activity's potential adverse effects on anadromous fish habitat.

- (c) If the commissioner finds that a proposed activity with proposed conditions and mitigation measures will not cause significant adverse effects to anadromous fish habitat under AS 16.05.877(a), the commissioner shall determine the application is for a minor anadromous fish habitat permit under AS 16.05.883.
- (d) If the commissioner finds that a proposed activity has the potential to cause significant adverse effects to anadromous fish habitat under AS 16.05.877(a), the commissioner shall determine the application is for a major anadromous fish habitat permit under AS 16.05.885.
- (e) The department shall provide public notice of a determination made under this section. The department shall
 - (1) post notice of the determination on the Alaska Online Public Notice System (AS 44.62.175); and
 - (2) make a copy of the application available on the department's website.

*Section 5. AS 16.05 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 16.05.877. Significant adverse effects.

- (a) The commissioner shall find the potential for significant adverse effects where the activity may, singly or in combination with other factors:
 - (1) impair or degrade any habitat characteristic protected under AS 16.05.867;
 - (2) interfere with or prevent the spawning, rearing, or migration of anadromous fish at any life stage;
 - (3) result in conditions known to cause increased mortality of anadromous fish at any life stage;
 - (4) lower the capacity of anadromous waters to maintain aquatic diversity, productivity or stability; or
 - (5) impair any additional criteria, consistent with the requirements of AS 16.05.867-16.05.901, adopted by the commissioner through regulation.
- (b) The commissioner shall find that the proposed activity will cause substantial damage to anadromous fish habitat and fish and wildlife species if, despite the application of scientifically proven, peer reviewed and accepted mitigation measures under AS 16.05.887, the anadromous fish habitat will be adversely affected such that it will not likely recover or be restored within a reasonable period to a level that sustains the water body's, or portion of the water body's, anadromous fish, other fish, and wildlife that depend on the health and productivity of that anadromous fish habitat.
- (c) In determining whether anadromous fish habitat will recover or be restored within a reasonable period under this section, the commissioner shall account for the life stage, life span, and reproductive behavior of the species of anadromous fish that depend on the habitat adversely affected by the proposed activity using the best available scientific information.

- (d) In determining whether adversely affected anadromous fish species will remain sustainable and recover, the commissioner shall consider likely post-project conditions known to result in the mortality of anadromous fish at any life stage, and known to interfere with or prevent spawning, rearing or migration of anadromous fish using the best available scientific information.

*Section 6. AS 16.05 is amended by adding new sections to read:

Sec. 16.05.883. Minor individual anadromous fish habitat permit.

- (a) A minor anadromous fish habitat permit may be issued by the commissioner for an activity if the commissioner determines that:
 - (1) all application requirements under AS 16.05.875 are met, including the determination that the activity will not cause significant adverse effects to anadromous fish habitat; and
 - (2) public notice has been given as required in AS 16.05.875(e).
- (b) The minor anadromous fish habitat permit under this section must include all permit conditions or mitigation measures required of the permittee under AS 16.05.887.

Sec. 16.05.884. General permits for minor activities.

- (a) The commissioner may authorize a general permit on a regional or other geographical basis for similar activities, if the commissioner determines that:
 - (1) the activity will not singly or cumulatively cause significant adverse effects on anadromous fish habitat;
 - (2) the activity is not related to large-scale development;
 - (3) adverse effects can be avoided by meeting certain conditions and stipulations;
 - (4) any conditions or stipulations are mandatory and enforceable; and
 - (5) a general permit is in the public interest.
- (b) The commissioner may issue a proposed general permit or a person may petition the commissioner to issue a proposed general permit.
- (c) A petition shall include a description of the geographic location and the proposed permitted activity and provide information explaining how the activity meets the requirements under (a) of this section. The commissioner shall determine whether to grant or deny a petition within 30 days.
- (d) When the commissioner makes a determination to propose a general permit under (b) or (c) of this section, the commissioner shall provide public notice of the proposed general permit and provide at least 30 days for receipt of public comments. The commissioner shall hold at least one public hearing if requested by an interested person. If the proposed general permit meets the requirements in (a) of this section, the commissioner may make a determination to issue a general permit.
- (e) The commissioner may issue a regional or geographical authorization to cover any person conducting an activity under a general permit or require a person to first obtain a written authorization from the department before being covered under the general permit. The department shall make general permit authorizations available through

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

electronic means. The commissioner shall issue a decision on a request for written authorization within 5 work days after receiving the request. The general permit authorization shall set forth enforceable stipulations to avoid adverse effects to anadromous fish habitat.

- (f) The commissioner shall review a general permit at least every 5 years. The commissioner may make a determination to reissue the general permit if the requirements under (d) of this section are met.
- (g) The commissioner may amend a general permit at any time to include additional stipulations. The commissioner may rescind a general permit if the commissioner determines that the general permit no longer meets the requirements of (a) of this section. The commissioner shall issue public notice of any proposed permit amendment or the intent to rescind a general permit, and shall provide at least 30 days for receipt of public comments.
- (h) Notice under this section shall be provided in accordance with AS 16.05.875(e).

Sec. 16.05.885. Major anadromous fish habitat permit.

- (a) Unless reconsideration is requested under AS 16.05.889, the commissioner shall, after providing notice under AS 16.05.875(e) of a determination under AS 16.05.875(d), prepare a draft major anadromous fish habitat permit assessment that identifies and describes:
 - (1) the proposed activity;
 - (2) the extent, timing and duration of the potential adverse effects the activity could have on anadromous fish habitat and other fish and wildlife;
 - (3) possible alternatives or modifications to the proposed activity that will avoid or minimize the activity's potential adverse effects on anadromous fish habitat;
 - (4) any permit conditions and mitigation measures that the department may require of the permittee under AS 16.05.887;
 - (5) the amount of the performance bond necessary to restore anadromous fish habitat if the permittee is not in compliance with the permit conditions and mitigation measures required under AS 16.05.887; and
 - (6) the commissioner's determination of whether the proposed activity's significant adverse effects, singly or in combination with other factors:
 - (A) will be prevented or minimized under AS 16.05.887; or
 - (B) will cause substantial damage to anadromous fish habitat under AS 16.05.877(b).
- (b) The commissioner shall collect, or require the applicant to collect, the information needed for permitting. The commissioner may recover fees equal to the cost of services for collecting the information and conducting the fish habitat permit assessment.
- (c) Upon completion of the draft assessment under (a) of this section, the department shall:
 - (1) post notice on the Alaska Online Public Notice System (AS 44.62.175);
 - (2) make a copy of the draft assessment available on the department's website; and
 - (3) provide at least 30 days for public comment.
- (d) After the completion of the comment period established by (c)(3) of this section and evaluation of the comments received, the commissioner shall publish a final assessment and a written permit determination on the department's website. The final assessment

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

must include all of the components required for a draft assessment under (a) of this section. The written permit determination shall set forth the reasons for the decision and the basis for concluding that the requirements of AS 16.05.887 and of (e) of this section are met. The department shall post public notice of the final assessment and permit determination on the Alaska Online Public Notice System (AS 44.62.175) and provide written or electronic notice to each person who commented on the commissioner's determination that the application for the permitted activity was an application for a major permit under AS 16.05.875(d) or on the draft assessment prepared under (a) of this section for the activity.

- (e) The commissioner may issue a major permit to an applicant only if:
 - (1) the public notice period required under (c) of this section is complete;
 - (2) any permit conditions and mitigation measures under AS 16.05.887 are mandatory and enforceable;
 - (3) the applicant, if required, provides the bond required by (g) of this section; and
 - (4) a request for reconsideration of the commissioner's final assessment and written determination under (d) of this section is not timely received under AS 16.05.889.
- (f) If request for reconsideration of the commissioner's final assessment and written determination issued under (d) of this section is timely received under AS 16.05.889(a), the commissioner shall issue a major permit for the activity when the commissioner
 - (1) denies the request for reconsideration or issues a new determination under AS 16.05.889(c); and
 - (2) finds that the requirements of (e) of this section have been met.
- (g) After the commissioner issues a written permit determination under (d) of this section, the applicant shall file with the commissioner, on a form furnished by the commissioner, a performance bond in an amount established by the commissioner payable to the State of Alaska and conditioned on faithful performance of the requirements of this chapter and the permit. The commissioner may not issue a permit until an applicant files the bond in an amount sufficient to ensure compliance with permit terms and the completion of the mitigation measures determined necessary by the commissioner under AS 16.05.887 and included in the written permit determination posted under (d) of this section. The performance bond may be a corporate surety bond issued by a corporation licensed to do business in the state or a personal bond secured by cash or its equivalent. The commissioner may not accept a bond executed by the applicant without separate surety.
- (h) A governmental entity or federally recognized tribe is exempt from the bonding requirements of this section.
- (i) A permittee may not transfer or assign authority to conduct an activity that requires a permit under this section to another person without:
 - (1) the written approval of the commissioner; and
 - (2) posting a performance bond for the transferee or assignee as required under (g) of this section, unless the transferee or assignee is exempt under (h) of this section.
- (i) In this section "federally recognized tribe" has the meaning given in AS 23.20.520.

Ballot Measure No. 1

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

*Section 7. AS 16.05 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 16.05.887. Permit conditions and mitigation measures.

- (a) The commissioner shall prevent or minimize significant adverse effects to anadromous fish habitat. The commissioner shall require a permittee under AS 16.05.885 to implement the permitted activity in a manner that avoids significant adverse effects to anadromous fish habitat or, if significant adverse effects cannot be avoided, to mitigate significant adverse effects to fish and wildlife including anadromous fish habitat under (b) of this section.
- (b) When establishing permit conditions for an activity, the commissioner shall, in order of priority, require a permittee under AS 16.05.883, AS 16.05.884 , or AS 16.05.885 to mitigate adverse effects by taking one or more of the following actions:
 - (1) limit adverse effects of the activity on anadromous fish habitat by changing the siting, timing, procedure, or other manageable qualities of the activity;
 - (2) if the adverse effects of the activity cannot be prevented under (1) of this subsection, minimize the adverse effects of the activity by limiting the degree, magnitude, duration, or implementation of the activity, including implementing protective measures or control technologies; and
 - (3) if the activity cannot be implemented in a manner that prevents adverse effects to anadromous fish habitat under this subsection, restore the affected anadromous fish habitat.
- (c) Permit conditions and mitigation measures under this section may not offset the activity's adverse effects by restoring, establishing, enhancing, or preserving another water body, other portions of the same water body, or land.
- (d) The commissioner shall require an applicant to employ the best available, scientifically supported techniques to mitigate adverse effects under (b) of this section.
- (e) The department may adopt regulations consistent with AS 16.05.867 - 16.05.901 establishing appropriate permit conditions and mitigation measures applicable to activities subject to permitting requirements under AS 16.05 .883, AS 16.05.884 or AS 16.05.885.

*Section 8. AS 16.05 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 16.05.889. Reconsideration of determinations,

- (a) Within 30 days after the date of a determination of the commissioner under AS 16.05.871(e), AS 16.05.875(c) or (d), AS 16.05.883, AS 16.05.884(d) or (e), or AS 16.05.885(d), any interested person may request that the commissioner reconsider the determination. A request for reconsideration must be in writing.
- (b) Within 30 days after receiving a request for reconsideration, the commissioner shall issue a written determination granting or denying the request. If the commissioner does not act on the request for reconsideration within 30 days after receiving the request, the request is denied. If the commissioner grants the request for reconsideration, the commissioner will issue a final determination within 30 days.
- (c) Unless the commissioner orders a remand for further agency proceedings, the commissioner's determination upon reconsideration is the final administrative decision for purposes of appeal to the superior court under AS 44.62.560. A person shall initiate an appeal within 30 days after the date that the final determination is mailed or otherwise distributed, or the date that the request for reconsideration is considered denied by the commissioner's failure to act on the request, whichever is earlier.

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

*Section 9. AS 16.05 is amended by adding new sections to read:

Sec. 16.05.894. Notification of violation.

When the commissioner finds, after investigation, that a person is violating a provision of AS 16.05.867-16.05.901, a regulation adopted under AS 16.05.867-16.05.901, a permit condition or stipulation imposed under AS 16.05.884, or a permit condition or mitigation measure imposed under AS 16.05.883 or AS 16.05.885, the commissioner shall notify the permittee of the nature of the violation and:

- (1) order that the violation be stopped; or
- (2) if the violation cannot be stopped, order the permittee to prevent or mitigate the adverse effects of the violation on anadromous fish habitat, fish and wildlife, and other adversely affected resources in a manner consistent with AS 16.05.867-16.05.901.

*Section 10. AS 16.05.901(a) is amended to read:

Sec. 16.05.901. Penalty for violations of AS 16.05.867"16.05.901 (16.05.896).

- (a) A person who, with criminal negligence, violates or permits a violation of AS 16.05.867-16.05.901, a regulation adopted under AS 16.05.867-16.05.901, a permit condition or stipulation imposed under AS 16.05.884, a permit condition or mitigation measure imposed under AS 16.05.883 or AS 16.05.885, or an order issued under AS 16.05.894 is guilty of a class A misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in AS 12.55. In this subsection, "criminal negligence" has the meaning given in AS 16.81.900(a).

*Section 11. AS 16.05.901 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

- (c) Notwithstanding (a) of this section, if a person or governmental agency fails to notify the commissioner of an activity for which a permit is required under AS 16.05.867-16.05.901 and the activity causes material damage to anadromous fish habitat or, by neglect or noncompliance with permit conditions and stipulations imposed under AS 16.05.884 or permit conditions or mitigation measures imposed under AS 16.05.883 or AS 16.05.885, causes material damage to anadromous fish habitat, the person or governmental agency is guilty of a class A misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in AS 12.55.
- (d) Each day that a violation under this section occurs or continues is a separate violation.
- (e) A person who violates or permits a violation of AS 16.05.867-16.05.901, or a regulation adopted under AS 16.05.867-16.05.901, a permit condition or stipulation imposed under AS 16.05.884, a permit condition or mitigation measure imposed

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

under AS 16.05.883 or AS 16.05.885, or an order issued under AS 16.05.894 is liable, after notice and hearing, for a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $10,000 to be assessed by the commissioner. In determining the amount of the civil penalty, the commissioner shall consider:

- (1) the character and degree of injury to anadromous fish, other fish, and wildlife habitat;
 - (2) the degree of intent or negligence of the respondent in causing or permitting the violation;
 - (3) the character and number of past violations caused or permitted by the respondent; and
 - (4) if the information is available, the net economic savings realized by the respondent through the violation.
- (f) If a respondent violates an order issued under AS 16.05.894, the attorney general, upon the request of the commissioner, may seek an injunction requiring the respondent to suspend an activity, in whole or in part, until the respondent complies with the order.
- (g) If a respondent violates an order issued under AS 16.05.894 that requires the respondent to repair or correct damage, the commissioner may proceed to repair or correct the damage using state agency employees or contractors and the respondent shall be liable for the cost of the repair. The commissioner shall deliver to the respondent an itemized statement of expenses incurred.
- (h) The supreme court shall establish by order or rule a schedule of bail amounts for violations under (a) of this section that allow the disposition of a citation without a court appearance. The bail amount for a violation must be stated on the citation.

*Section 12. AS 16.05 is amended by adding new sections to read:

Sec. 16.05. Scope.

The provisions of this Act do not apply to existing activities, operations, or facilities that have received all required federal, state, and local permits, authorizations, licenses, and approvals for activities adversely affecting anadromous fish habitat, on or before the effective date of this Act, until expiration or termination of the user's permit, authorization, license, or approval.

*Section 13. AS 16.05.851 and AS 16.05.896 are repealed.

AS 16.05.851 and AS 16.05.896 are repealed.

*Section 14. The uncodified law of the State of Alaska is amended by adding a section to read:

The provisions of this Act are independent and severable. If any provision of this Act is found to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of this Act shall not be affected and shall be given effect to the fullest extent possible.

Ballot Measure No. 1

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

STATEMENT IN SUPPORT

We are fortunate to live in one of the last strongholds of wild salmon in the world. Everywhere else salmon have occurred in Europe and North America, irresponsible development and human activity have wiped out or threatened those salmon populations. Alaska can avoid that same fate by voting YES for Salmon.

Alaska's wild salmon are critical to our state's economy, cultures and way of life. But as our state grows and the number and scale of development projects increase, irresponsible development will cause significant habitat destruction. Unless we strengthen state laws, we could lose this irreplaceable resource that connects us all and defines who we are as Alaskans. What does Alaska look like without our thriving and abundant wild salmon populations? This ballot initiative before you ensures we will never have to answer that question. Please vote YES for Salmon.

Salmon fisheries provide jobs for over 30,000 Alaskans and generate almost $2 billion in economic activity each year. According to the Alaska Department of Fish and Game, salmon provide up to 61% of the protein in the diets of rural Alaskans. Yet the state law intended to protect wild salmon rivers and other habitat is now over sixty years old, has no legally enforceable standards to adequately protect salmon habitat from irresponsible development, and has no process for Alaskans to weigh in on projects that could harm salmon resources.

The Yes for Salmon initiative would bring this outdated and ineffective law into the 21st Century by creating a more transparent, responsible and balanced approach to large-scale development projects. It puts into place modern, science-based safety standards and common-sense accountability to protect Alaska jobs and help prevent major catastrophes that could wipe out huge portions of our state's wild salmon populations.

Here is what voting Yes for Salmon would do:

- Establish clear, enforceable standards for development around salmon streams, requiring things like adequate water in streams, fish passage, and good water quality that wild salmon need and preventing major projects from doing substantial long-term damage to salmon streams;
- Protect access for our subsistence, commercial and sport fishing activities;
- Ensure that Alaskans, for the first time, have a voice in the permitting process for major development projects that could harm salmon streams;
- Give Fish and Game authority over all salmon streams in Alaska;
- Ensure that responsible development projects move forward in a way that protects our wild salmon legacy.

Ballot Measure No. 1

An Act Providing for the Protection of Wild Salmon and Fish and Wildlife Habitat

STATEMENT IN OPPOSITION

Vote NO on 1 to Protect Alaska's Communities, Jobs and Economy

What is Ballot Measure 1?

Ballot Measure 1 will harm Alaska's economy and cost Alaskans their jobs. It eliminates our science-based fish habitat protections and replaces it with more red tape and untested regulations. From road improvements to projects on the North Slope, this measure will shutdown or delay existing operations and future projects and puts our future at risk.

What Will Ballot Measure 1 Do?

It threatens our jobs and our economy; it threatens our rights as property owners; it threatens our ability to maintain or develop public infrastructure; and it doesn't do what supporters say it will: it does not fix the problems facing our salmon runs. None of that should come as a surprise since the measure was created and funded by Outsiders who have no vested interests in Alaska. This would threaten projects and activities including, but not limited to: roads, pipelines, wastewater treatment facilities, docks, bridges, land access, home building, septic systems, hydroelectric power, mining, ice roads, tourism operations and more. And it boosts state spending and the number of state employees.

What Will Voting No on Ballot Measure 1 Do?

- Protect our jobs, our economy and our state revenue
- Maintain our current science-based fish habitat protections
- Allow existing operations, like the Trans-Alaska Oil Pipeline, to continue operating
- Let important new projects, like the Alaska Natural Gas Pipeline, to move forward
- Protect private property owners' rights to build or repair on their own land
- Prevent increases in unnecessary State spending
- Allow important road projects to move forward
- Enable communities to use and develop hydroelectric power
- Preserve Alaska Native corporations' ability to develop their lands

Vote NO to Protect Our Jobs and Economy

Ballot Measure 1 will make it much more costly or impossible for existing and future projects throughout the state—particularly those in rural Alaska—to move forward. Without those projects, Alaska's jobs and economy will be in peril at a time when Alaska is in recession and has the highest jobless numbers in the nation. According to State officials, the measure will cost millions of dollars in new state spending.

Vote NO to Protect Your Rights

Under Ballot Measure 1, simple projects like adding or repairing a dock or a culvert on your property will become tangled in endless red tape. You would have to pay for an expensive scientific study, and your project could be open to public comment, meaning anyone, including Outsiders, could sue to stop your project. And, your failure to navigate the new red tape could land you in jail and result in thousands of dollars in criminal penalties.

Vote NO for a Better Solution

Fisheries scientists say that ocean problems are causing Alaska's low salmon runs. Ballot Measure 1 doesn't address ocean issues at all. This measure doesn't solve the problem and, if it passes, will only make it harder for Alaska to enact better policies.

Judges on the Ballot

Alaska Judicial Council Evaluation and Recommendations

Why do judges appear on the ballot?

The Alaska Constitution and state law require all state judges to appear periodically on the ballot for approval or disapproval by the voters. This power and duty of the people to vote whether to retain judges is a critical part of Alaska’s judicial system.

What information is available about judges on the ballot?

Voters often feel they do not have enough information to vote on judges. To help voters make informed votes, the Alaska Judicial Council is required by law to evaluate the performance of sitting judges who are up for retention, and to make this information available to voters. The Alaska Judicial Council publishes its information in this Election Pamphlet, and on its web site at:

www.knowyouralaskajudges.com.

How are judges chosen in Alaska?

Under the Alaska Constitution, the selection of judges is a two-part process involving the Alaska Judicial Council and the governor.

The Alaska Judicial Council is a non-partisan citizens commission. The Council reviews applications of people who want to be judges and nominates the best-qualified among them. The governor appoints a judge from the list of nominees.

Retention Election. After appointment, judges must appear on the ballot in order to remain judges. The framers of our constitution thus provided Alaskans with a non-partisan, merit-based system of judicial selection, and a retention election that ensures judges remain accountable to the public.

What judicial qualities did the Alaska Judicial Council evaluate?

The Judicial Council evaluated judges’:

- Integrity, diligence, impartiality, fairness, temperament and legal ability,
- Ability to manage caseloads, and
- Overall performance of their duties in and out of the courtroom, including judgment.

What are the Alaska Judicial Council recommendations for judges on the 2018 ballot?

The Judicial Council recommends a “YES”
vote on all judges standing for retention.

Please review the following pages for more details about the recommendation on each judge.

How did the Alaska Judicial Council evaluate the judges on the 2018 ballot?

- Surveyed Thousands of Alaskans: The Judicial Council surveyed peace and probation officers, court employees, attorneys, jurors, and social services professionals.
- Public Hearings & Public Comment: The Judicial Council asked for comments from the public, and held a statewide public hearing.
- Review of Other Information: The Judicial Council reviewed conflict of interest statements filed with the Alaska Public Offices Commission, and separate financial disclosure forms filed with the court system. It reviewed court personnel records. It researched whether any salary warrants were withheld for untimely decisions and whether any disciplinary matters came before the Alaska Commission on Judicial Conduct. The Judicial Council analyzed the number of peremptory challenges filed against a judge, and the number of times the judge’s decisions were reversed on appeal.
- Considered Judges’ Self-Assessments: The Judicial Council invited each judge to assess his or her own performance over his or her most recent term.
- Questioned Attorneys with Recent Experience: The Council invited attorneys who had recently litigated a case before each judge to provide detailed observations about the judge’s performance in that case.

What is the Alaska Judicial Council?

- The Alaska Constitution sets the Judicial Council membership:
 - » Three members who are not attorneys are appointed by the governor and confirmed by a majority of each house of the Alaska Legislature;
 - » Three attorney members elected by their peers in an advisory ballot and are appointed by the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association, an entity created and authorized by the Alaska Legislature; and
 - » The Chief Justice of the Alaska Supreme Court serves as chair. (The Chief Justice does not vote unless his or her vote can affect an outcome.)
- The Constitution requires all appointments to the Council be made with “due consideration to area representation and without regard to political affiliation.”
- Members serve staggered terms. They receive no financial compensation for their work other than reimbursement for travel expenses.

STATEMENT:
I have had the privilege of serving Alaska as a Superior Court Judge since being sworn in on September 29, 2014. Since then, not a day has passed without me being humbled by the amount of trust and responsibility accompanying this position. I continuously strive to enhance my proficiency and to prove correct those who placed me here.

When coming to court, everyone should feel confident that the court will sincerely listen to their case, that their case will be fairly considered, and that their case will be decided in a timely fashion. My goal is to further cultivate and enhance this court's reputation for doing so. I find serving Alaskans tremendously rewarding. I seek retention so that I may be permitted to continue in this pursuit.

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:
Superior Court Judge 2002 to present

STATEMENT:

I have had the privilege of serving as a superior court judge since 2002. I try to approach each case with the understanding that for the litigants it is perhaps the most important current event in their lives. I strive to understand each party's position and to fairly and neutrally apply the law to them. I think being a judge has been the most demanding, important, and fulfilling job I have ever had. I enjoy helping parties come to their own resolution of disputes, if possible. If they cannot, then I am willing to make the difficult decisions given to me. If retained I will continue to work hard to provide impartial justice to all who appear before me.

STATEMENT:
This is my first retention election. These past three years have proven to be the most fulfilling in my twenty-five year legal career. My family and I have had a wonderful life in Alaska. The state of Alaska has given me an opportunity to give back to the people of Alaska for that amazing life. I am honored to have this opportunity to serve. It will be an honor if the good people of Alaska permit me to continue to serve in this capacity.

One of my roles on the bench is to ensure that every Alaskan citizen has equal access to the court system. Every case warrants serious consideration, compassion and fairness. It is important that every person who appears in my courtroom has an opportunity to be heard and their case is evaluated fairly and according to the law. I will continue to work hard and provide a fair opportunity for all parties to be heard. I will continue to strive towards living up to these principles and look forward for this opportunity to continue serving.

EDUCATION:
Fairfield University, B.A. 1989
Northeastern School of Law, J.D. 1994

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:

Law Clerk, Alaska Court of Appeals	1994-1995
Assistant Public Defender	1995-1996
Assistant Attorney General	1996-2001
Assistant Municipal Prosecutor	2001-2011

SPECIAL INTERESTS:
Biking, Skiing, Hiking

OTHER:

I grew up in the Boston area, and attended law school there. During the summer of 1993, I interned at the Alaska Office of Public Advocacy. After graduating, I returned to Alaska to be a law clerk. I then went to Kenai to be a public defender. Later, I returned to Anchorage to work for the Attorney General, doing consumer protection and child protection work. Subsequently, I worked at the Municipal Prosecutor’s Office, as a trial supervisor of the domestic violence unit and trial attorneys and at various times, I served as Deputy Municipal Prosecutor.

STATEMENT:

I love Alaska and have made this special place my home. When I arrived in Alaska in 1994 as a young lawyer, I immediately became enamored with the friendliness, the spirit, and the wildness of Alaska.

For me, it was a daunting task to go to law school and then overcome the challenges of litigating. So, I recognize that coming to court is an uncomfortable experience for many individuals because I have personally experienced it. In the past 20 plus years, I have had the opportunity to have served as a law clerk, public defender, prosecutor, juror, and judge. These experiences have exposed me to the different aspects of the court system in Alaska, and I believe that the Alaska Court System strives to be fair to all people. As a judge in district court for the past seven years, I have seen that a lot of people appearing in my courtroom are dealing with significant struggles and conflicts. Every day, I strive to listen and respond to people, with dignity and respect, as they confront difficult situations. I feel fortunate to have served as a state court judge, thus far, and hope to continue to serve the public as a district court judge.

STATEMENT:
I have lived in Alaska since 1972. After attending college and law school, I returned to Alaska because of my strong desire to stay in Alaska and serve the community where I was raised. As an Assistant District Attorney and Assistant Attorney General in Anchorage, Barrow, Fairbanks, and Palmer, I became familiar with the issues that face all Alaskans when they become involved with our justice system. This experience has enabled me to deal efficiently and fairly with the high volume of cases in the Anchorage district court. In criminal cases, I strive to make sentencing decisions that meet both the needs of the community and the victim, as well as addressing a defendant’s rehabilitation. In civil cases, I listen carefully to the parties and take the time to reach decisions that are well reasoned and just.

Within the court system itself, I continue to work collaboratively with other judges to make hearings more efficient for the public. I also work with other judges and attorneys to improve our jury instructions in criminal cases so that they are current and more understandable.

I am committed to treating everyone who becomes involved in our justice system fairly and with respect. I greatly enjoy both serving and being a member of this community.

STATEMENT:
Serving in the Palmer District Court is very satisfying. This is the “ounce of prevention” court where we deal with the majority of the courts’ cases and a full 80% of the criminal cases. We see the widest variety of human misfortune. In each case, I look for a “silver lining” or the opportunity for the person to get the knowledge, skills and tools that can help them to avoid coming back to court until, perhaps, to serve as a juror on someone else’s case.

I believe that respect, patience, and understanding go a long way toward helping people who have been brought to court to find their way to a better future. If they can do that, they help not only themselves but also the community and the families, victims and others involved in the unfortunate events leading to the court case.

As a lifelong Alaska, it has been an honor for me to serve the Valley as a judge for 15 years, handling well over 60,000 cases. I love my job, and try to treat each person who appears before me fairly and with respect. One of the high points of my judicial service has been helping start Palmer’s mental health court. I truly believe this therapeutic court has helped many people turn their lives around. I care deeply about providing justice to all the people that come before me and it is an honor to serve the people as a judge in Palmer.

OTHER:

After graduating from law school, I worked for a small general practice law firm in Cherry Creek, Colorado. I became interested in spending more time in a courtroom which led to my work as a district attorney and judge. My husband Glenn and I married in 1988. In 1990 we were able to move to Alaska, a dream we shared. Glenn has worked for many years on an offshore oil platform in Cook Inlet.

STATEMENT:

It has been an honor to serve the people of the State of Alaska in both my previous positions with District Attorney's Offices and in my current position as a District Court Judge. I always strive to treat everyone with fairness and respect. I try to make certain that the many self-represented litigants who appear in court understand what is happening and the options that are available. Jurors are essential to the functioning of the court system and I try to make the many citizens who report for jury service aware of the importance of their role and to respect their time as much as possible. Before making any decision, I work hard to become aware of and to carefully and impartially evaluate both the facts and the law.

Serving as the only District Court Judge in Kenai has been both challenging and rewarding. If retained, I will continue to do the best job that I can to serve the citizens of the State of Alaska and the Kenai Peninsula.

Alaska Judicial Council Recommendation

STATEMENT:

It has been a privilege for me to serve as a District Court Judge. I am grateful for the positive recommendation of the Alaska Judicial Council.

I am honored to be a member of what I believe to be among the finest judicial systems in the country. I work hard to provide a forum that is fair to all parties and to treat all who appear before me with courtesy and respect. I try to consider each case in a careful, impartial and thoughtful manner and to render a judgment that is impartial and in accordance with the law.

I have welcomed opportunities to promote respect for democratic principles and our system of justice by speaking to groups such as youth court graduations and by participating in mock trial with school classes. The job of a judge requires constant study to remain current in the law and to learn new ways to improve the administration of justice. In addition to private study, I have pursued educational opportunities such as legal seminars to improve my performance as a judge.

I have always strived to conduct myself with integrity, humility and diligence. If retained I will continue to perform my duties to the best of my ability and endeavor to be worthy of the job entrusted to me.

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:
Assistant Attorney General (1983 to 2008)

STATEMENT:

Trial judges make decisions that have far reaching consequences for individuals and often for the wider community. We hold positions of trust and are vested by the people with significant authority and broad discretion to carry out that trust. The members of the communities we serve therefore rightly expect us to listen carefully, to be respectful in every situation, to address each claim raised, and to craft thoughtful decisions that achieve just and fair results under the facts and the law. No matter the issue, our communities want us to care about the people who are affected by our decisions. And they want us to issue decisions that are straightforward and understandable, rather than enshrouded in legal jargon. These are exacting expectations. I work very hard to attain them, although imperfectly. I want you to know that, at the end of each day, I reflect upon whether I have met your expectations, and I consider how I can better meet them tomorrow.

I have a very deep sense of calling to my work as a judge. Being a judge defines my life and consumes nearly all of my energy. If I fail in any respect, it is not for lack of trying. I hope that you will find that I have met your expectations well enough over the past ten years to justify granting me an additional term as a judge. Regardless of your assessment of my performance, however, I am profoundly grateful for the opportunity to have served you.

Alaska Libertarian Party

Libertarians believe in personal freedom and personal responsibility. All Alaskans should be free to live their lives and pursue their interests as they see fit, as long as they do not interfere with others.

We advocate for a government that stays out of people's personal, family, and business decisions. We are strong supporters of Civil Rights and the principles enshrined in the U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights.

We stand for...

- ☐ Fiscal Responsibility
- ☐ Limited Government
- ☐ Lower Taxes
- ☐ Free Market Principles
- ☐ Personal Liberty

We support...

- ☐ Restoration of the PFD
- ☐ Balancing the Budget
- ☐ Criminal Justice Reform
- ☐ Parental Rights
- ☐ Tribal Sovereignty

The Libertarian Party is the only political organization which respects you as a unique and responsible individual, and is the only major political party that consistently promotes limited government.

We ask all eligible Alaskan voters to register Libertarian and assist us in building the fastest growing political party in America. For more information visit AlaskaLP.org or Facebook.com/AlaskaLiberty.

ALASKA REPUBLICAN PARTY

If you love America, if you love the US Constitution, if you love individual freedom, if you love life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, the Alaska Republican Party is the political party for YOU!

We are the Party of Personal Freedom, Responsibility, and Unlimited Opportunity.

The Republican Party is the largest political party in Alaska. Registered Republicans include people from all walks of life, every age group, every creed, sex, color and cultural background.

We are a voluntary association of a group of feisty individuals. We love to share our opinions, debate, discuss, deliberate and even agree to disagree! People matter even in the midst of differing points of view.

We believe Alaskans can be united, our economy can prosper and our state budget can be balanced.

We believe in cutting bloated and wasteful state budgets, low taxes, strong public safety, exceptional public and private education, and the best infrastructure in the world.

We Republicans are putting America first, rebuilding our magnificent military, renegotiating fair trade agreements, protecting our borders, respecting our Constitution, reducing government regulation and unleashing the power of free enterprise and the genius of the American people.

We Republicans are especially focused on Alaska with support for ANWR and access to natural resources, which are vital to our economy. We support "Stand for Alaska".

We are proud of our multi-cultural heritage and we are proud to be Americans.

We are volunteers, we care about our communities, our state, and our nation. We volunteer our time, our treasure and our voice to our mutual efforts to elect the best team possible to help govern our nation, our state, and our local governments.

We welcome discussion, debate and all those who are ready to "walk away" from the politics of division, identity politics, hate, and blame. Republicans working together will ensure our best days are yet ahead!

The Alaska Republican Party welcomes YOU.

ALASKA REPUBLICAN PARTY AND THE ALASKA PERMANENT FUND DIVIDEND RESOLUTION 18-001. PAID FOR BY ALASKA REPUBLICAN PARTY, PO BOX 201049, ANCHORAGE AK 99520. NOT APPROVED OR AUTHORIZED BY ANY CANDIDATE OR ANY CANDIDATE COMMITTEE. PAID FOR BY THE ALASKA REPUBLICAN PARTY, TUCKERMAN BABCOCK CHAIRMAN, JULIE TISDALE, TREASURER. P.O. BOX 201049. ANCHORAGE AK 99520. WWW.AKGOP.ORG.

RESOLUTION 18-001

ADOPTED BY THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF THE ALASKA REPUBLICAN PARTY

No Changes to the Traditional, Statutory and Current Formula for the Permanent Fund Dividend (PFD) Without a Vote of the People

Whereas, the Alaska Permanent Fund was created by a VOTE of the People,

Whereas, the principal of the Alaska Permanent Fund has been largely protected by a VOTE of the People through a Constitutional Amendment.

Whereas, when changes were considered to the use of the realized earnings and undistributed income account in 1998, the proposed change was submitted to an advisory VOTE of the people of Alaska,

Whereas, the people voted by an 83-17 percent margin to reject the proposed change to the traditional, statutory and current formula, and the government honored the will of the People expressed through the 1998 Advisory Vote,

Whereas, the principal of the Alaska Permanent Fund is by law derived from only one quarter of the owner's 12.5 percent royalty share due from mineral and oil and gas development on Stateland,

Whereas, the State already taxes the remainder of the owner's royalty share to use directly for government spending,

Whereas, over three decades ago a statutory formula was adopted to provide for Permanent Fund Dividends to the royalty owners (that is individual Alaskans) derived in perpetuity from the earnings of the principal of the Permanent Fund,

Whereas, this traditional, statutory and current formula provides for approximately half of the average realized earnings over time to be distributed as a dividend to the royalty owners (that is individual Alaskans),

Whereas, this traditional, statutory and current formula also provides for approximately half of the average realized earnings to be readily and freely available to the State for inflation-proofing the principal and for general government spending,

Whereas, for more than thirty years this traditional statutory formula was followed and respected by the State, that is until the State kept half the authorized PFD in 2016,

Whereas, in 2017 the State arbitrarily reduced the PFD authorized by the statute's traditional, statutory and current formula - without any VOTE by the People,

Whereas, in 2018 again the State arbitrarily reduced the PFD to a level that ignores the traditional, statutory and current formula for calculating Dividends,

Whereas, the State can eliminate all Dividends, or set Dividend amounts at will, or even spend every penny of Permanent Fund earnings, and

Whereas, the constitutionally protected principal of the Permanent Fund is guaranteed to generate earnings in perpetuity, and that those realized earnings will, also in perpetuity, be available for providing for the traditional Permanent Fund Dividends, and

Whereas, the State has adopted a change to the traditional, statutory and current formula without a VOTE of the People;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that any change to the traditional, statutory and current law for calculating Permanent Fund Dividends shall, at a minimum, be subject to an advisory VOTE of the People.

A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

LETTER FROM THE CHAIR

The Alaska Permanent Fund (Fund) was created by the adoption of a Constitutional Amendment in a statewide election over 42 years ago. Under the stewardship of the Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation (APFC), the Fund has grown from the first deposit of $734,000 in royalties to a multi-billion dollar, globally recognized, leading sovereign wealth fund. The successes of the Fund and APFC are shared with all Alaskans - as they are founded in our Alaskan commitment to ensure that these financial assets are wisely invested and produce compelling long-term results for all generations.

APFC's team of experienced and knowledgeable professionals is unified in promoting and adhering to the principles of transparency, accountability, and best in class practices in the management of the Fund. Our results driven investment staff strives to out-perform select benchmarks on a daily basis, as they work to generate wealth and grow the value of the Fund. The active management of APFC's portfolio is based upon the strategic directives developed by the Board of Trustees.

The Trustees serve as the Fund fiduciaries and ensure the assets are managed and invested in a manner consistent with legislative findings in AS 37.13.020:

- The Fund should provide a means of conserving a portion of the state's revenue from mineral resources to benefit all generations of Alaskans;
- The Fund's goal should be to maintain safety of principal while maximizing total return;

APFC

ALASKA PERMANENT
FUND CORPORATION

- The Fund should be used as a savings device managed to allow the maximum use of disposable income from the fund for purposes designated by law.

The acknowledgement of our achievement in converting a non-renewable natural resource into a renewable financial resource reaches well beyond the borders of our last frontier. APFC's investment model has been recognized globally for its ability to create and grow value on a sustainable basis for Alaska. Earlier this year, APFC welcomed the recognition as "Sovereign Wealth Fund of the Year" in Hedge Fund Investments by Institutional Investor and "Limited Partner of the Year - Americas" by Private Equity International.

In broadening our investment reach and building success globally, APFC routinely identifies and cultivates relationships with like-minded partners. Our relationships are based on cooperation, trust, and transparency. APFC's guiding principles and long-range investment vision for Alaska are underscored by our commitment to establishing enduring professional trust and confidence in our stewardship of the Fund. In our service to Alaska and our partners around the world, APFC is united by our shared values of Integrity, Stewardship, and Passion.

OUR MANDATE

The Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation is a state entity based in Juneau which manages the assets of the Alaska Permanent Fund; and other funds designated by law, such as the Alaska Mental Health Trust Fund. APFC's investment model is globally recognized for its ability to create and grow value on a sustainable basis for Alaska.

MANAGING THE FUND

Our APFC team of skilled professionals is responsible for the day-to-day operations, accounting, and investment of the Fund and is overseen by a six-member Board of Trustees who serve as fiduciaries. Together the Trustees and Staff strive to achieve long-term investment success on behalf of our fellow Alaskans.

UNDERSTANDING THE FUND

Alaskans amended the Constitution in 1976 to establish the Alaska Permanent Fund, directing at least 25 percent of Alaska's non-renewable mineral royalties be deposited into the Fund and used only for income producing investments. Growth of the Fund is generated through deposits to the Principal and through returns on investments. In a state with primarily non-renewable resources, the Fund generates renewable revenue for current and future generations of Alaskans.

STRUCTURE OF THE FUND

The Fund is invested as one comprehensive strategy and divided into two parts: Principal (nonspendable) and Earnings Reserve Account - ERA (assigned). The Principal is constitutionally established and permanently protected. It can only be used for income-producing investments and grows through deposits of royalties, inflation proofing, and special appropriations. The ERA is a statutory account and holds the realized earnings generated by the Fund's investments. It can be appropriated by the Legislature for any state purpose.

APFC VISION STATEMENT

OUR VISION IS TO DELIVER SUSTAINED, COMPELLING INVESTMENT RETURNS
AS THE UNITED STATES' LEADING SOVEREIGN ENDOWMENT MANAGER, BENEFITTING ALL CURRENT AND FUTURE GENERATIONS OF ALASKANS.
